PETITIONING THE COURT

- ☐ To issue a warrant
☒ To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

- 1 The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.'

On December 12, 2008, the offender was arrested by the Passaic Police Department for obstructing the administration of law, resisting arrest and harassment. According to the police report, on December 12, 2008 at 2:02 a.m., the victim reported the offender came to her residence and began whistling at the window to get her attention. At this time, the victim had an active temporary restraining order (TRO) against the offender which had never been served on him. She called police and when they arrived, the offender attempted to run off. A foot pursuit ensued and the offender was apprehended, but resisted arrest. At the police headquarters, the offender was served with the TRO.

2

The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.'

On December 12, 2008, the offender was arrested by the Passaic Police Department, and did not report the law enforcement contact until the probation office contacted him on December 17, 2008.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

RE: U.S. v. Darnell Keshon Ormsby
Dkt. No. 00-680-CR-KING
Notification of New Arrest and
Request for a Summons

Dear Judge Walls:

On February 15, 2001, Darnell Keshon Ormsby was sentenced by the Honorable James Lawrence King in the Southern District of Florida to 60 months imprisonment, followed by a four-year term of supervised release for the offense of Importation of Heroin. The offender was ordered to pay a $100 special assessment fee, and the following special condition: drug and alcohol treatment. He has been supervised by this district since his release from confinement on February 4, 2005 and transfer of jurisdiction was accepted by Your Honor on March 7, 2006.

The purpose of this letter is to inform the Court of Ormsby's new arrest and failure to notify the probation office in a timely fashion of the law enforcement contact. On December 12, 2008, the offender was arrested by the Passaic Police Department for obstructing the administration of law, resisting arrest and harassment. According to the police report, on December 12, 2008 at 2:02 a.m., the victim reported the offender came to her residence and began whistling at the window to get her attention. At this time, the victim had an active temporary restraining order (TRO) against the offender which had never been served on him. She called police and when they arrived, the offender attempted to run off. A foot pursuit ensued and the offender was apprehended, but resisted arrest. At the police headquarters, the offender was served with the TRO. The offender did not report the law enforcement contact until December 17, 2008, after the probation office confronted him regarding the arrest.

At this time, it is recommended a summons be issued so that Ormsby can appear in Court to answer this violation allegation. If Your Honor requests an alternative action, please advise. We will make ourselves available should Your Honor wish to discuss this matter. You may contact the undersigned at the telephone number listed above.

Respectfully submitted,

CHRISTOPHER MALONEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
